

HMWF Books Wish List, as of 05/04/2016

Heart Mountain Wyoming Foundation Collection Donors,

Thank you for your interest in helping us add important published resources to our archival holdings for use by our visiting researchers, scholars, and staff. Attached is a list of titles we are currently seeking.

We are also happy to receive other titles related to Heart Mountain, Japanese American incarceration, WWII military service, associated wartime policy analysis, community impact and studies, Japanese American history and biographies, redress and reparations, etc. We accept academic works, such as a thesis, and scholarly journals with relevant articles. If you would like to make title suggestions for our next "wish list", please let us know.

If we receive duplicate or additional titles of books we already own, these "extras" go into our Reference or Education collections, which helps us share these materials with researchers and educators, unless the item has special characteristics such as signed by the author, rare/limited editions, scarcity, or were owned by someone of particular note, etc. – in which case, those copies are automatically placed in our secure, non-circulating Archival holdings, regardless of how many copies we have, but remain accessible for on-site use by researchers and staff.

For a list of titles we already have, please review the Inventory of HMWF Books and Published Material. This guide can be viewed on the Rocky Mountain Online Archive at http://rmoa.unm.edu/docviewer.php?docId=wypohmfhmfw_monopubs.xml

NOTE: Prices in the used book market can fluctuate wildly and are sometimes artificially inflated. We kindly request that you spend no more than $20 for any single title. For books that are commanding a higher price, please contact the Archivist (who is also a professional librarian) prior to purchasing and we will take a second look to see if a more affordable copy is available. The archives can be reached at archives@heartmountain.org or 307-754-8000 x103.

If you are purchasing online and wish the book(s) to be delivered directly to us or would like to mail us books, they can be shipped to the address below. If available, US Postal Service Media Mail is the most economical shipping method.
